Mind Platter

Mind Platter is a compilation of reflections on life through the eyes of an educator, student and human who experienced most of life in silence. It is written in the words of a person who came from Lebanon to Canada at the age of sixteen and experienced what it was like to have fate push you to a place where you don't belong.

Mind Platter is a book filled with short expressions. I'm hesitant to call this a book of poems, as I didn't think of poems as I read them, feeling the words "observations" or "experiences" are more appropriate. I knew nothing about author, Najwa Zebian, and randomly stumbled upon this great book on a display table at the bookstore.
