Cosmo crossed his ankle over his knee and began humming. It wasn't deliberately to annoy the blonde chick behind the reception desk. No, he'd had this tune buzzing around in his head ever since waking, but what with having to come along to this interview for a piece-of-shit job, he hadn't had a chance to [...]

Treehouse attachment bolts or TABs are specialized bolts engineered for treehouse construction. Various models and trademarks exist, with names such as Garnier limbs (GLs); tree anchor bolts; artificial limbs; heavy limbs or hyper limbs (HLs); special tree fastener or stud tree fastener (STFs).. They may be either of through fastener style (for smaller trees) or side mount type for larger ones.
